

I DO NOT support the use of Broadband Over Power Lines (BPL) as it will cause interference with many forms of other communications. The need for effective emergency communications is most evident in times of disaster in which power lines will be damaged and BPL interference will be increased.